

ECOWEEK
2010 ... habits change ... climate change

Green Architecture :: Community :: Sustainability

YOUNG ARCHITECTS FORUM

International environmental design workshops for students and young architects

Israel & West Bank: July 25 - August 1, 2010

Activities include lectures and discussions with international keynote speakers and guest architects including Michael Sorkin, Bjarke Ingels (BIG), Robert Axelrod, Nataly Gattegno, Jason Johnson, Thomas Rau; international mixed group workshops on green buildings, design and planning, ecological community projects, and urban landscape; hands-on ecological building construction; accommodation in Tel Aviv, Jerusalem and other sites; sightseeing in Jerusalem and optional 2-day tour.

Registration is open! Limited spaces.
Inquire about available subsidies.

Visit: www.ecoweeek.org.il (or) www.ecoweeek.org.ps
Call: +972.544.286998 E-mail: ecoweeek@ecoweeek.org

This program is made possible through the cooperation of ECOWEEK (Greece) with the Embassy of Greece, the General Consulate of Greece, Friends of the Earth Middle East, the Jordan Valley Environmental Education Center, the Shorouq Society for Women, the Porter School of Environmental Studies, BYU Center in Jerusalem, Palestine Peace Society, the Dutch Green Building Council, the Royal Danish Embassy and others.

