ECOWEEK 2012

... habits change ... climate change

Urban FOOTPRINT + Affordable COMMUNITIES + Green DESIGN

International Conference & Workshops for Architecture & Design
Conferenza Internazionale e Workshop di Architettura & Design

Rome, Italy | September 24 - 30, 2012

"One of the best programs for students in Europe!"

Summer in ROME! Learn and practice "green" design and ecological buildings with the experts! Network with international students, meet leading architects, and spend a week in historic Rome with local students and professionals!

ECOWEEK is the international conference and workshops for young professionals and students, featuring experts from around the world.

ECOWEEK workshops will address new "green" buildings, "green" renovation of existing buildings, "green" urban interventions, landscape projects, light hands-on construction and more!

Some of the workshop projects are real projects!
