

ECOWEEK ONLINE CHALLENGE : The 15 Year Anniversary Edition
October 2 – 4, 2020

NGO ECOWEEK is celebrating its 15-year anniversary with an online challenge that will inspire, challenge and innovate - with lectures, design workshops and a virtual exhibition!

With activity in 17 countries, and a network in 56 countries
ECOWEEK brings together young professionals for innovation and sustainable design, green buildings, Placemaking, Emergency + Social Architecture, and Circular Economy. Join us!

This October ECOWEEK holds its second online event as a response to COVID-19 travel restrictions and the need to intensify environmental awareness and sustainable practices towards the European 2030 targets.

With keynote speaker award-winning French architect Nicola Delon (Encore Heureux Architectes), and experts from Israel, Romania, Poland, Austria, Lithuania, Greece, and the Czech Republic. Lectures on sustainable design, green buildings, policy, circular economy, biodiversity and more - organized in part with the European network of cultural institutes EUNIC-Tel Aviv.

The ECOWEEK – EUNIC Tel Aviv panel is moderated by architect and environmental consultant Dr. Elias Messinas, founder and chairman of ECOWEEK and an adjunct senior lecturer at Holon Institute of Technology, Israel and University of Patras, Greece.

The lectures will be held on Friday, October 2 at 10:30 (Israel time) and it will be broadcast live on the Internet. Admission is free. Registration is required: <https://ecoweeek.online/>

With 48-hour design workshops and a unique virtual exhibition that will inspire with ideas generated in 200 ECOWEEK design workshops in 17 countries! This will be the most engaging and inspiring ECOWEEK event!

ABOUT ECOWEEK

ECOWEEK is a non-profit organization, established in 2005 by architect and social entrepreneur Elias Messinas, with the passion to change peoples' habits and the mission to raise environmental awareness and to promote sustainability. Based in Greece and Israel, for 15 years ECOWEEK has been engaging, training and empowering more than 4000 students and professionals from 56 countries with inspiring speakers and challenging design workshops. ECOWEEK has become for many young professionals a unique experience and a turning point to their growth and career.

Whether in virtual or physical platforms, at ECOWEEK students design and implement innovative ideas and develop their thinking in sustainability. Many ideas are implemented in cities around the world. Together we will continue to make an impact! Join us for this special ECOWEEK 15-year anniversary challenge!
