ECOWEEK 2011

... habits change ... climate change

ECOWEEK is the international conference and workshops for young professionals and students, featuring experts from around the world. In ECOWEEK 2011 more than 300 registered participants from 16 countries will join 37 workshops on 'green' buildings, 'green' renovation of existing buildings, 'green' urban interventions, landscape projects and more. Some of the workshop projects will be real projects!
