ECOWEEK Rome Successful close

ECOWEEK 2012 in Rome opening on Monday September 24, hosted at Acquario Romano (near Centrale) and continued through the week with 'green' design workshops hosted at different locations in Rome. Some workshops created real scale community interventions and real scale prototypes, involving bikesharing and bike touring of Rome. Projects were design in cooperation with Roma Capitale, Provincia di Roma and Risorse per Roma. ECOWEEK keynote speaker KENGO KUMA

ECOWEEK in Rome Feedback

'When I signed up I did not quite know what to expect. I thought we would design a building just like in school. But the workshop was different, we designed, we built it and then the community came! It was a real surprise and quite amazing how it all came together!'

'We really learned that with very few resources we can add value to the city!'

'ECOWEEK in Rome was perfect!'
