International Happening for 'Green' Design & Intervention

Thessaloniki, Greece | April 2-8, 2012

For more details visit our website: www.ecoweeek.org

International Conference and Interdisciplinary 'Green' Design Workshops and hands-on urban interventions for young & established Architects, Designers, Landscape Architects, Engineers and graduate students!

Following a series of successful conferences and 'green' design workshops in Athens, Milano, Tel Aviv, Beit Jala, and Jerusalem, and before ECOWEEK takes off to Cracow (Poland), Rome (Italy), and Copenhagen (Denmark), ECOWEEK takes place once again in Thessaloniki.

This year, for one more year ECOWEEK brings together the best among ecologically minded-architects, designers, landscape architects, young professionals, and graduate students, in a week of creative thinking 'out of the box', cooperation, dialogue, intercultural exchange, networking, hard work and lots of fun!

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS: GERNOT MINKE, Architect GERMANY & ORJAN NYHEIM, Pirll Architects NORWAY
