Split Street Stairs

The streets begin to split creating a void between the road. The space is currently being used as a parking space with little vegetation. If there is a space such as a set of stairs connecting it to...

Trees between Cars

Most people traveling down these streets do not realize the beauty of trees in the middle. If we propose a way to highlight the trees it may raise awareness of the nature within this community.

Book Box

This is a small hole in the wall which can be utilized a box. This would create a book share program in which people place their books so others can come and use them.

Pine Tree Wall

This is a large wall which is a blank space within the city. Instead of using a mural it may bring out some beauty in the blank facade. Possibly a mural of the Pine tree showing the difference from a...

Bench in Wall

This is a small void within the wall that could be used as a small bench for someone to read, meditate or do anything else. This small compressed area is covered providing an escape for the element...

Phone Booth

This was an unused phone booth which was in the middle of the neighborhood. This seems to be an outdated technology within it maintain one that we are in. By proposing inside a charging station or...

The Pine Tree

There is a tall pine tree in the middle of the street that seems a lot out of place. If we try to highlight this tree it may raise awareness of the nature in this area.

Bench not Curb

The curb separates the sidewalk and parking spaces. There seem to be a lot of small shops on this street so if we propose a bench idea instead of the curb it allows the users a place to gather after...

Dead End 1

By having a mural at the end of the street it may excite someone actually go down this street to see the beauty within the houses and the vegetation.

Food Share

If we propose a program which lines the street with boxes in which each house will grow one certain type of plant but yet all the houses have access to this food. This would create a special interact...

Dead End 2

By having a mural at the end of the street it may excite someone actually go down this street to see the beauty within the houses and the vegetation.

Garden Corner
 Aggiornata 19 ore fa

This is a corner that does not seem to be appealing to the public. If there is a garden or something that will be more appealing it will grab the attention of the community
